“ I remember Bennie from his days at the Bank. He was so professional, yet he ALWAYS had a smile and kind word for everyone.

Bennie was so real, and people loved him because he could also laugh at himself. He shared the story of when he was entrusted to pick up Hugh McCall, the CEO of NationsBank who was visiting the newly-acquired bank in Nashville. We all planned the visit so very carefully. Mr.McCall asked at the last minute while in the car coming from the airport to see some branch locations, and Bennie made a wrong turn, realized it and just circled back. Mr.McCall evidently commented to Bennie that he thought he'd been down that same street before, and Bennie said he told Mr. McCall: "Oh, it all looks the same here in Nashville," and shared his trademark laugh. It was that comfortable style with even the most senior execs that endeared him to all.

He helped out his fellow bank employees, by doing little side jobs with Scooter on the weekends. The brick sidewalk he helped to install at our house is still lovely 28 years later.

While earth will miss Bennie, I am sure he already has the angels laughing in Heaven.

Heaven is an even better place because he is there now.

former Senior Vice President Sales & Marketing

“ To the Fisher Family,
There will never be another Bennie Fisher. In the mid 70's when I moved to Nashville, he was a sounding board for me. I visited their home and was always welcomed. "Earth has no sorrows that Heaven can not heal." For the family I pray God will grant you Perfect Peace in the midst of your present storm.

“ To The Fisher Family

Blessings come in many guises, That God alone in love devises,
And sickness, which we dread so much, Can bring a very healing touch, For often on the wings of pain The peace we sought before in vain Will come to us with sweet surprise And through long hours of tribulation God gives us time for meditation, And no sickness can be counted loss That teaches us to bear our cross.

In loving memory, Sister in-law, Joanne Floyd

“ My Deepest Condolences, Mr. Fisher was always a joy when he came to our office. The jokes he would tell, boy...We always enjoyed his company and he will be dearly missed. Prayers to his wife and family.

Warmest Regards,

Carmen and Joy
